

Artist statement: Expressing my feelings and reaction to the world through my paintings, be it figures, landscapes or abstraction, is a necessity of my daily life. A spontaneous response to what I see is what I endeavor to achieve and at the same time create a story and questions for the viewer.

Bio: Born in London U.K. my career was mainly in journalism and the diplomatic service. It was not until I married and moved to Big Timber, Montana to, join by husband on his ranch that I began painting. I am mainly self-taught and over the years have exhibited locally in Bozeman, Livingston, Big Timber and Ennis.
